> Raymond Brady Is Victim of Probably Fatal Accidental Wound.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Danville, Va., October 26.—Raymond
Brady, the ten-year-old son of W. A.
Brady, was shot and probably fatally wounded by his playmate, Charlie Martin, the twelve-year-old son of John Martia, on Colquhoun Street this afternoon at 1 o'clock when the twel-Martin, on Colquinous Street this afternoon at 1 o'clock, when the two boys were playing with a .22 calibre rifie, which they thought to be unloaded. They had been gathering nuts in some woods during the morning, and when they returned to their home Martin obtained the gun and they began playing with it. Martin was carrying it soldlerwise, over his shoulder, when Brady walked up behind him pulling the barrel down. Martin at that moment had his finger on the trigger, and the gun went off. Brady receiving the full load of shot in the left temple. He fell unconscious in the road. Martin, seeing what had happened, ran to a store shouting for help, and people ran to the assistance of the wounded boy and a physician was summoned. Brady was taken to the hospital in a motor was taken to the hospital in a motor car, but up to the present time has not regained consciousness, and Lis con-dition is given as very serious. Brady and Martin were very good friends, and Martin, verging on hysteria, wishes that he had been the victim.
